

Donna Louise Brent Groger

Birth: Nov. 26, 1928
Billings
Yellowstone County
Montana, USA
Death: Oct. 18, 2007

Donna Louise Groger, 78, of Helena, passed away on Oct. 18, 2007, of heart complications. She was born on Nov. 26, 1928, to J. Wallace and Mary Agnes Brent in Billings, where she was raised, educated and lived for several years.

While in Billings she worked as a secretary and clerk for I.C.R. Realty and Juro's Pharmacy. For a period of time she was also part owner of the Broken Drum in the Billings Heights. In 1979, she met and married Harry Groger, at which time she became a full-time housewife. Together they resided in Billings, Polson, and eventually moved to Helena to be closer to family. They traveled extensively and for several years wintered in Arizona, at which time she was able to fulfill her dream of attending the Rose Bowl Parade. Donna enjoyed several hobbies, including handicrafts, fishing, traveling and clam digging, but most importantly she enjoyed spending her time with family and friends. Holidays were always special times for Donna, especially Christmas, when she could shop to her heart's content.

Donna was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Patrick Brent.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Michal (Kent) Crebo of Helena; a granddaughter, Janelle Crebo of Palm Springs, Calif.; a sister, Marjorie Blehm of Billings; and several special nieces and nephews as well as friends throughout the country. Funeral services will be conducted on Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 1 p.m. at Hagler-Anderson Mortuary with interment to follow at the Montana State Veterans Cemetery at Fort Harrison. In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer donations to the charity of the donor's choice.
